

The Campbell River Chamber of Commerce is currently seeking applications from qualified candidates interested in the position of

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER (CEO)

The Campbell River Chamber of Commerce provides value to its members through active advocacy, connecting leaders and creating opportunity. The Chamber is the voice of business in Campbell River and advocates at the local, regional, provincial and federal levels on behalf of over 300 members representing 4,000 employees.

For more than 90 years, the Campbell River Chamber has been the trusted advocate and tireless champion for local businesses. With a long-standing reputation for excellence and leadership, the Chamber continually generates opportunities to connect people by bringing life to business. Doing so provides a vehicle for success for its members and the future of Campbell River's business community.

The Board of Directors of the Campbell River Chamber of Commerce seeks an experienced individual for the position of President and CEO. This position requires a strategic and innovative leader who will work with various stakeholders such as government, business and community leaders to evolve and grow the Chamber of Commerce for long-term sustainability and maximize value for its membership.

In this high profile role, preferred candidates will have demonstrated experience in a Chamber of Commerce, Not for Profit or Enterprise, similar in size and scope to the Campbell River Chamber. They will ideally have a Business or Public administration degree or equivalent education/work experience, with specific experience in stakeholder relations, communications, marketing, finance and accounting, human resource management and operations. They have experience in dealing with government, regulatory bodies, and have knowledge of the Campbell River and BC business communities.

The selected candidate will work with our highly dedicated, staff and volunteer base and have strong business acumen, excellent communication skills and an engaging interpersonal style, in order to carry out the Campbell River Chamber strategic plan.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Expressions of interest including career profiles will be accepted until May 31, 2019 or until a suitable candidate is identified. Resumes should be sent confidentially to:
